AVI BioPharma, Inc.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(Unaudited)

Note 1. Basis of Presentation

The financial information included herein for the three-month periods ended March 31, 2001 and 2000 and the financial information as of March 31, 2001 is unaudited; however, such information reflects all adjustments consisting only of normal recurring adjustments which are, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair presentation of the financial position, results of operations and cash flows for the interim periods. The financial information as of December 31, 2000 is derived from AVI BioPharma, Inc.'s (the Company's) Form 10-K. The interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and the notes thereto included in the Company's Form 10-K. The results of operations for the interim periods presented are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year.

Note 2. Earnings Per Share

Basic EPS is calculated using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period and diluted EPS is computed using the weighted average number of common shares and dilutive common equivalent shares outstanding. Given that the Company is in a loss position, there is no difference between basic EPS and diluted EPS since the common stock equivalents would be antidilutive.

Three Months Ended March 31,	2001	2000
Net loss	$(3,178,710)	$(1,139,882)
Weighted average number of shares of common stock and common stock equivalents outstanding:

Dilutive effect of warrants and stock options after application of the treasury stock method	*	*
Weighted average number of common shares outstanding for computing diluted earnings per share	21,529,674	16,359,671
Net loss per share - basic and diluted	$(0.15)	$(0.07)

* The following common stock equivalents are excluded from earnings per share calculation as their effect would have been antidilutive:

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis

Forward-Looking Information

The Financial Statements and Notes thereto should be read in conjunction with the following discussion. The discussion in this Form 10-Q contains certain forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to, the results of research and development efforts, the results of pre-clinical and clinical testing, the effect of regulation by FDA and other agencies, the impact of competitive products, product development, commercialization and technological difficulties, and other risks detailed in the Company's Securities and Exchange Commission filings.

Overview

From its inception in July 1980, the Company has devoted its resources primarily to fund its research and development efforts. The Company has been unprofitable since inception and, other than limited interest, license fees and grants, has had no material revenues from the sale of products or other sources, and does not expect material revenues for at least the next 12 months. The Company expects to continue to incur losses for the foreseeable future as it expands its research and development efforts. As of March 31, 2001, the Company's accumulated deficit was $63,472,543.

Results of Operations

Revenues, from license fees, grants and research contracts, decreased to $15,980 in the first quarter of 2001 from $1,131,873 in the first quarter of 2000, primarily due to the receipt of a $1,000,000 fee for expansion of a license for diagnostic applications during the first quarter of 2000.

Operating expenses increased to $3,556,746 in the first quarter of 2001 from $2,372,536 in the first quarter of 2000 due to increases in research and development staffing and expenses associated with outside collaborations and pre-clinical and clinical testing of the Company's technologies. Additionally, increased general and administrative costs were incurred to support the research expansion, and to continue to broaden the Company's investor and public relations efforts. Net interest income increased to $362,056 in the first quarter of 2001 from $100,781 in the first quarter of 2000 due to earnings on increased cash balances.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's cash and cash equivalents were $22,001,736 at March 31, 2001, compared with $25,898,513 at December 31, 2000. The decrease of $3,896,777 was due primarily to $2,789,675 used in operations and $1,113,918 used for investing activities which consist primarily of leasehold improvements, purchases of property and equipment and patent related costs. In addition the Company's short-term securities decreased $1,595,380 to $4,618,206 at March 31, 2001 due to unrealized losses in the value of these securities.

The Company's future expenditures and capital requirements will depend on numerous factors, including without limitation, the progress of its research and development programs, the progress of its pre-clinical and clinical trials, the time and costs involved in obtaining regulatory approvals, the cost of filing, prosecuting, defending and enforcing any patent claims and other intellectual property rights, competing technological and market developments, the ability of the Company to establish collaborative arrangements and the terms of any such arrangements, and the costs associated with commercialization of its products. The Company's cash requirements are expected to continue to increase significantly each year as it expands its activities and operations. There can be no assurance, however, that the Company will ever be able to generate product revenues or achieve or sustain profitability.

The Company expects that its cash requirements over the next twenty-four months will be satisfied by existing cash resources.
